Turbidity

is the measure of how clear the water is.

Salmon need cold, clean, clear water.

Hold this sign up against one of the small sides of the aquarium and look through the other small side.

If you can read this and see Sammy,
then your water is clear!